THE POCAHONTAS TIMES

Entered at the Postoffice at Marlin on, W. Va., as second class natter

CALVIN W. PRICE, EDITOR.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 1, 1927

In the fall of the year 1770, John Draper, living at Drapers had been to several g relief, but medical e wishes of her friends r case. She was very nd made friends quick-ry much loved by all

She made her peace
short time before her
vas born August 11, November 2, 1927,
o years, two months
She was twice married mourn her loss two Ann, of Washington,
n Nelson, of Organ
her mother, two half half brother. Funeral nducted at the Arbo-Rev. Arthur and her rest in the Arbovale

e and take thy rest,
nome, He thought it

A Friend

. Gillispie, aged 76
home of his daugh-
Clark, in Cass, Sun-
ovember 27, 1927.
t feeble, Mr. Gillis-
e in his usual health nd in an attitude of ed while engaged in tions. On Monday
y was buried in the y, beside the grave
had preceded him
rs ago.
s one of the promihe best citizens of trict. He had ser-magistrate and as He took an active
in church work

A GOLDEN WEDDING

November 22 was an interesting occasion at the hospitible home of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Lightner. It being the 50th anniversary of their marriage of Mr. Lightner to Miss Augusta Bird. November 22, 1877 they were united in the holy bonds of matrimony and for fifty years they have dwelled together ever remembering their solemn vows. Some time since they decided to celebrate their golden wedding and to this end they invited their relatives and friends. Their children are J. H. Lightner of Dunmore, Mrs. Coe Beverage and E C. Beverage of Huntersville, Mrs. Mack Wade of Lewisburg, Mrs. Don Ryder of Valley Center, Va., and H. R. Lightner who so faithfully looks after his father and mother at home. The grandchildren to this union number thirty-nine with three great-grandchildren. There were many useful presents from the friends. It was delightful to see the high appreciation of these dear old people who had been so tenderly lovingly remembered on their golden wedding day. When dinner was announced the party repaired to the dining room where a feast of fat things were spread. Mr. and Mrs Lightner are quite active and with the exception of a few ills to which the flesh is heir their health is remarkably good. They feel very thankful for a kind providence who has protected and cared for them all their days. May they continue to abide in strength is our prayer.

One Who Was There

OUR COLORED FRIENDS

San

A

Everyth

D

China
Leather
Celluloid

Games

V

So